"(b.) The Municipal Collector shall pay over annually on or before December 31st in each year to the Trustees of the improvement district the amount, if any, collected by him in pursuance of the above provisions, less any penalties and interest collected, which penalties and interest the Municipal Collector shall be entitled to retain for the use of the municipality.

"(c.) In case any lands within the improvement district become vested in the Corporation of the Township of Spallumcheen through tax-sale proceedings, and are not redeemed by the former owner at the expiration of the time limited for redemption, the said Corporation shall acquire said lands free from any liability to account to the improvement district for any amount due and unpaid to the improvement district in respect to said lands, but with the consent of the Trustees may convey the lands to the improvement district on payment of the amount, if any, due to the Corporation, and the Trustees may thereupon lease, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of such lands by tender after advertisement, and if no bids are received they may by by-law sell such lands for the best price obtainable."
